

Society and Personals.
Theaters—Women's Clubs and Fraternal Organizations.

The Washington Herald

WASHINGTON, D. C., SUNDAY, APRIL 11, 1915.

Churches—What Is Doing in the Religious World.

Society

Gala Days of Eastertide.

By MARY MARSHALL.

THE revival of the season was achieved with great eclat on Easter Monday, which proved to be the busiest day of several moons for the society folk of the Capital. The first of the spring weddings, that of Miss Genevieve Walsh and Paymaster Emmet C. Gudger, U. S. N., was the important social event of the afternoon and the honors of the evening, and likewise the members of the smart world, were divided between the brilliant ball at the navy yard and the concert and dance given by the Princeton Musical Clubs at the Willard, not to mention the numerous individual parties at the fashionable homes of the Capital.

Dinners have had a prominent place in the week's festivities, particularly official dinners, which have filled a number of evenings. Chief among these formal dinners were the series at which the Chinese Minister and Mme. Shah entertained in honor of some of the prominent officials of the United States government. The Secretary of State and Mrs. Bryan were the honor guests on Tuesday evening, the Attorney General and Mrs. Gregory and the Counselor of the State Department and Mrs. Lansing were guests on Wednesday, and the Secretary of Commerce and Mrs. Redfield and the Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson on Thursday. An interesting feature of the dinners was the departure from the elaborate Oriental decorations and service which have distinguished other dinners at the legation, and the adoption of American fashions in tableware and service.

With the first evidence of spring one hears gossip of the annual fitting and already many of the Washington hostesses are selecting cottages and villas at the various fashionable seaside resorts. Several of the foreign ambassadors will establish summer homes at Newport and Bar Harbor.

The Spanish Ambassador and Mme. Riano have already leased the Pumpelly cottage at Newport for the coming season and expect to take possession about the first of June. This is one of the most charming homes in Newport and contains several acres with terraced gardens sloping down to the sea. Among the other prominent folk of the Capital who will summer there are Mr. and Mrs. George Peabody Eustis, who will leave the latter part of May for their villa, on which they are having made extensive improvements, and Mrs. Richard Townsend, who intends to lease a larger cottage this summer, but has not yet made her selection. Mrs. William F. Draper has leased the Orchard cottage in Narragansett avenue and will spend the summer there instead of in Manchester, Mass., as has been her custom. Mrs. George Lathrop Bradley will also leave early in the season for Brent Lodge, which will be her home for the summer.

Earlier departures from town will occur among the official folk, many of whom will be the guests of the Hawaiian government during the latter weeks of April. A number of congenial parties have been arranged to make the trip together. With Representative and Mrs. John E. Raker will be Miss Gladys M. Burroughs, and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. F. Lynip. Senator Overman will have with him his daughters, Miss Grace and Miss Catherine Overman, Miss Mildred Borden and Miss Anna Pou. In Dr. Barchfeld's party will be Mrs. Barchfeld, Miss Barchfeld, Mr. and Mrs. William Gearing, Mrs. Myra Davis, and Mr. F. B. Kraus. Representative and Mrs. John W. Langley and Representative and Mrs. James M. Gudger, jr., will make up another party, and Representative Carter Glass, Mrs. Glass, Miss Augusta Glass, Mrs. Lucado, sister of Representative Glass, and Mr. Carter Glass, jr., will also make the trip together. Society will wend its way tomorrow and Tuesday to the dog show, where aristocratic dogs, of high breeding, disdainful manners and theoretically perfect deportment are on display at the old Walker-Hughes market, 1128-30 Connecticut avenue, to the number of more than 500. The show should easily eclipse the three former similar enterprises of the Washington Kennel Club, as this year the entry list and numerical strength of the exhibits both are much larger than in former years. Then, too, the trustees of Neighborhood House, which will receive the entire proceeds of the dog show, have joined hands with the patrons and patronesses to make the affair a success. Representative kennels, which are more and

Mr. William J. Eynon, Mr. John C. Fremont, Mr. Philip Henry, Mr. Archibald Hopkins, Mr. Royal E. Meeker, Mr. Clara D. Nellig, Mr. Logan Waller Page, Mrs. Mary Stewart, Mr. Walter R. Tuckerman, Miss Amaryllis Gillett, Miss Sophie Siebert, Miss Ellen A. Vinton, Mr. George E. Fleming, and Mr. Royal Meeker.

The Washington Kennel Club, which is regarded as one of the most active as well as sportsmanlike organization of its kind in the United States, is composed of the following members, nearly all of whom have one or more entries in the dog show: Mrs. Larz Anderson, Mr. Ed. E. Adamson, Mr. R. H. Atkinson, Mr. Conrad Becker, Mr. J. Carter Burns, Dr. D. E. Buckingham, Mrs. W. P. Collins, Mr. Ed. A. Conroy, Mr. A. L. Kline, Mr. Horace P. Clark, jr., Mr. Harry Chesley, Mr. L. F. Dyson, Mr. John O. Evans, Mrs. James Carroll Frazer, Mrs. A. P. Gardner, Mr. George Goodacre, Mr. George Hellen, Miss Joan G. Hinkle, Mr. S. J. Held, Mr. Henry Lansburgh, Mr. George S. Lane, Mr. George Charles McKee, Mrs. Angus McSweeney, Mr. Angus McSweeney, Mr. H. C. McFarland, Mr. Fred W. Moore, Mr. James P. Moore, Mr. Irving H. Muford, Mr. H. T. Newcomb, Capt. Grove A. Potter, Dr. George H. Payette, Mr. Bert L. Olm-

MISS CALLIE DOYLE, who is visiting in Columbus, Ohio, and who will return to Washington about April 25 to meet her sister, Mrs. George T. Marye, wife of the Ambassador to Russia.

THE GREATER PALAIS ROYAL

A. LISNER G AND ELEVENTH STREETS

Mrs. Vernon Castle

--Her Newest "Watch-Your-Step" Dresses

Note

These exact reproductions of the last new dresses worn by Mrs. Castle are on exhibition and for sale only at the Palais Royal in Washington. Price, $65.00. Third Floor—6 elevators.

GARMENT WEEK

The Palais Royal has waited—and watched—beginning the season with small assortments. Now come gigantic purchases—of the wanted Suits and Dresses of today—at prices very much the least of the season. Quantities great enough and values good enough to create a month's business in a week—this week.

183 New Suits at $25.00

215 New Suits at $19.75

100 New Suits at $15.75

200 New Dresses at $15.75

SUITS
$15.75

Equal Best $25 Suits

The comparison is a fair and logical one—made with the best $25 Suits of today.

Only Best Styles

Not one an early season failure, not one a suit that is not the style of today. Look for the semi-Norfolk, the vogue to the minute. The wanted military touch will be noted in the suit of men's wear serge, lined with peau de cygne. The shield effect fastening at front is new and liked, so is the box-pleated skirt, correctly 2 3/4 yards wide.

Perfect Fit Assured

While there is a model for every type of women, small, medium or large, there may be some alteration needed. A perfect fit is assured, and no extra charge is to be made.

Materials and Colors

The wanted poplins, shepherd plaids, gabardine, needle cloth and serges, in navy, tans, greens, mixtures and black.

DRESSES
$15.75

Values to $37.50

Difficult to write—worth to $37.50—apt to invite a doubt. It is written because literally true.

One-of-a-Kind

And not one a mistake of earlier in the season, each a dress that women look for today. Skirts from the extreme but ultrafashionable spiral to the accepted circular and plaited styles. Each bodice an original but artistic creation, some plain, some handsomely embroidered, all indicative of the best in the art of dressmaking.

Materials and Colors

Gros de Londres, crepe de chine, shantung, taffeta, crepe meteor, serges, etc. The colors include every new shade for dinner or street wear, also black and white effects.

See Window Display

In one of the G street windows, on life-like figures, these dresses are object lessons that will impress you with their real worth—$37.50.

THE PALAIS ROYAL
A. LISNER Hours: 9 to 6 G Street

Leverton's

1106 G Street
THE HOUSE OF FASHION

Individuality, Attractiveness and Quality at Moderate Cost
EXTRA SPECIAL!

Millinery

Sale of very smart Trimmed Hats—one-of-a-kind models. $5, $6, and $7 Hats, $2.75; $8, $9, and $10 Hats, $5; $12 and $15 Hats, rest of the season, $7.50.

New Models in Suits

Largest Variety of Styles in the City

Serges, Poplins, Gabardines; checks, stripes, mixtures. No equal to our suits.

$25, $29.50, and $35

Silk Suits, black, gray, Belgian, navy; value $40.

Special, $25

One hundred Suits taken from our regular stock. All colors, materials, and sizes. Were $25 and $27.50.

Special, $16.95 and $19.25

DRESSES

Beautiful Silk Dresses; all the new colors; values $25 to $35. This sale
$15 and $19.95

COATS

Fashionable Coats for all occasions. Coverts, checks, silks, chinchillas, golfine, serges, poplins. Exceptional values at $12.95, $15, $19.95

Hundreds of New Waists

The best values in town. Wonderful display of crepe de chine and Georgette crepes.

$2.95, $3.95 and $5

more becoming the prized playthings of New York and other Eastern society folk, are prominent in the list of entries. Their owners will vie with persons noted in Capital society for a lion's share of the prize money and trophies.

The following well known members of Washington's society life are by special authorization serving as patrons and patronesses of the dog show: The Secretary of War and Mrs. Garrison, the Assistant Secretary of War and Mrs. Breckinridge, the Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hollister Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. William Littauer, Mr. and Mrs. Larz Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Eno, Gen. Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Addison, Mrs. Angus McSweeney, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Eustis, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hamlin, Mr. and Mrs. Gist Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Henry White, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock, Admiral and Mrs. Bronson, Mrs. Henry C. Corbin, Mme. Christian Hauge.

The trustees of Neighborhood House, who have worked so effectively for the success of the dog show, are as follows: Mrs. George C. Altemus, Mrs. William R. Buchanan, Mrs. William S. Corby, Mrs. Joseph E. Davies, Mrs. Charles M. Foulke, Mrs. Gilson Gardner, Mrs. Christian D. Hemmick, Mrs. Celia Longcope, Mrs. John Mitchell, jr., Mrs. George Odell, Mrs. Cuno H. Rudolph, Mrs. John S. Thompson, Mrs. John Jay White, Miss Genevieve Clark, Miss Cora W. Gregory, Miss Clara J. Van Trump, Mr. Gilson Gardner, Mr. Norton M. Little, Mr. Cuno H. Rudolph, Mr. Charles J. Bell, Mr. Charles I. Corby, Mr. Ira Copley, stead, Mr. E. Roy Routt, Mrs. E. Silby, Mr. P. J. Stuebener, Mr. John F. Slavin, Mr. W. E. Swainson, Mr. Ed S. Schmid, Mr. R. M. Smith, Mrs. O. G. Sonneck, Mr. E. Schwarz, Mr. Howe Totten, Mr. T. F. Wasgatt, Mrs. K. Winter, Dr. C. C. Weeks, Mr. W. L. White, Miss Nellie Wheeler, Miss Marguerite Wheeler, Mrs. H. P. Wilson, Mr. W. W. Wilson, and Mr. Emory H. Wilson.

Mrs. George T. Marye, wife of the American Ambassador to Russia, will return to Washington shortly for a brief visit before going on to the exposition at San Francisco. She expects to spend some time at her new home at Burlingame, Cal., and will return to Russia in August by way of Siberia, accompanied by her little daughter, Helen, and by her sister, Miss Flora Doyle. Mrs. Marye was presented to the Czarina of Russia at Eastertide.

Among those who attended the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Pannill Ficklen on Friday evening were Dr. James Dudley Morgan, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Mackall, Judge and Mrs. Judson C. Clements and the Misses Clements, Mrs. LaSalle Corbell Pickett, Capt. A. M. Whaley, U. S. A., and Mrs. Whaley, Maj. Heaver, U. S. A., and Mrs. Heaver, Maj. Lawrence J. Fleming, U. S. A., and Mrs. Fleming, Gen. C. C. Safflen, U. S. A., and Mrs. Safflen, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Baker and the Misses Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Douglass, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs L. Baker, Paymaster C. J. Peoples, U. S. N., and Mrs. Peoples, Commander Lucius A. Boswick, U. S. N., and Mrs. Boswick, Commander Adelbert A. House, U. S. N., and Mrs. Althouse, Miss Drake, Capt. Stockton Heth and Mrs. Heth, the Misses Heth, Lieut. Clement C. Heth, U. S. A., and Mrs. Heth, Lieut. E. Phillips, Capt. Henry R. Lander, U. S. A., and Mrs. Lander, Dr. and Mrs. Wade H. Atkinson, Lieut. Commander John M. Enoch, U. S. N., Lieut. James P. Lannon, U. S. N., Mr. and Mrs. Ashton G. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Cahill and Miss Cahill, Dr. and Mrs. James Thurston Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. William V. Boyle, the Misses Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Saunders and the Misses Saunders, Capt. Norman F.

CONTINUED ON PAGE TWO.